KAKURO

If you like mathematics and you like crosswords, you'll LOVE Kakuro! It's a Japanese puzzle game that's played on a crossword-like grid, with numbers instead of letters.

How to play

1 Like many other grid games, a Kakuro game can be any size. They're often played on grids that are 8 x 8 squares or larger, but you can have smaller ones, too. Here's a mini-Kakuro to start you off.
