Try this, too!

There are many different variations of Nim. It can be played with different numbers of pieces and rows. For example, try playing with 12 pieces in three rows, like this.

You can also flip it around, so that the person who takes the last piece is the loser, not the winner.