
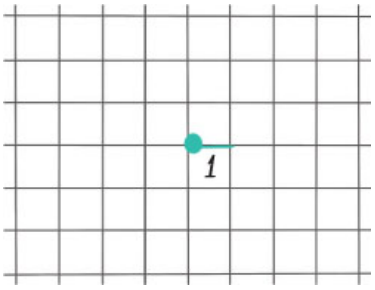
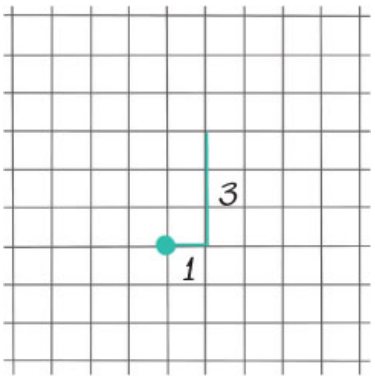
2 Now choose three numbers under 10. For example: 1, 3, 5.

3 Starting from your dot, draw a line one square long.



4 Turn a quarter-turn counterclockwise again, and—you guessed it!—draw a line five squares long.



5 Turn a quarter-turn counterclockwise, and draw a line three squares long.