

How to play

4 To play, the players pick a shade, then sit at the side of the board that matches their counters.

5 Then the two players take turns placing one of their counters anywhere on the board. Each player’s aim is to make a chain of their counters all the way across the board, linking the two sides that match their chosen shade.

