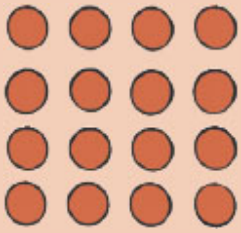
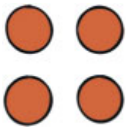
TWO COIN GAMES

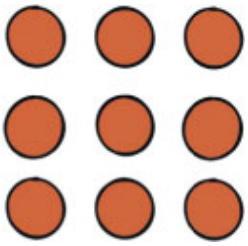
For these games, all you need is a big pile of coins or counters and two players. For the first game, Subtract a Square, you also need to know about square numbers.

A square number is a number that can make a square!



For example, 4 is a square number:





And so is 9: