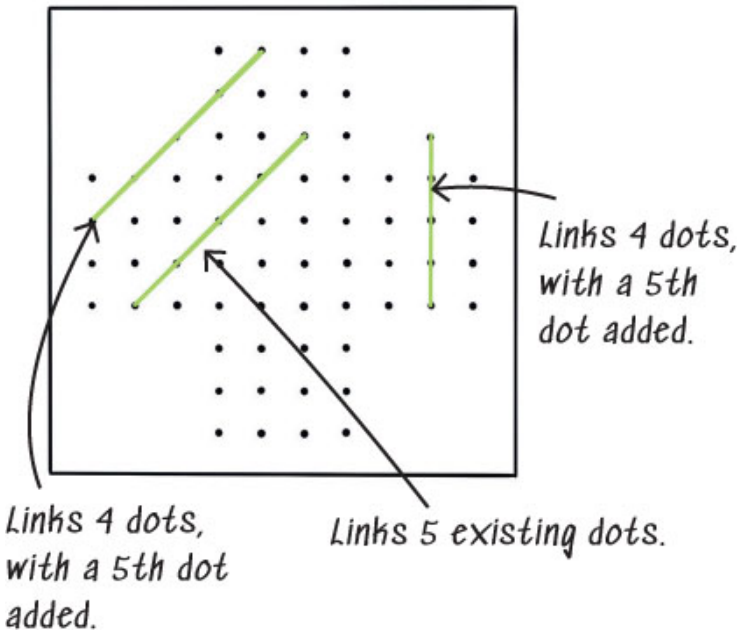
2 To play a turn, draw a straight line, five dots long. It can be horizontal, vertical, or diagonal. It can link five existing dots, or you can use four existing dots and add a fifth dot (lined up with the others in the grid). Lines can meet or cross over each other, but they can’t trace along each other.



3 Keep adding lines until you can’t do any more! How many can you fit in?