1 Here’s your first challenge—a simple number maze. As with any maze, you begin at the start line and try and make your way through to your destination. To get there, you have to follow a path made up of numbers in order, from 1–20.

2 This works the same way, but you’re following the three times table.