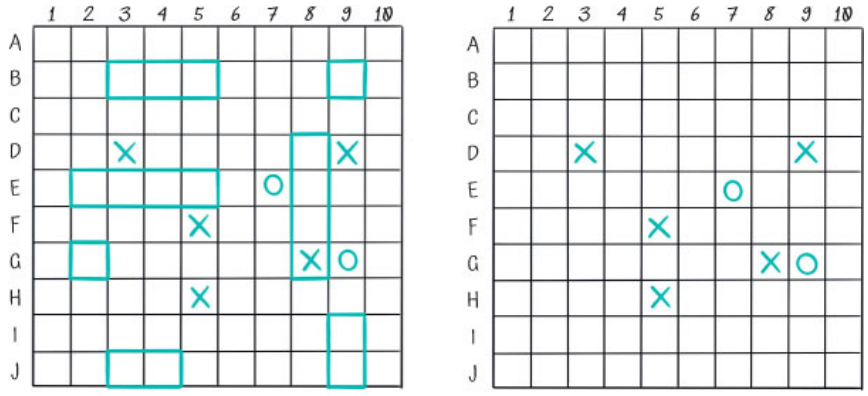
6 Then, the other player aims at one of your squares. Tell them if they hit or missed, and mark an X or O on your first grid—an X for where they hit a boat, and an O where they missed.



7 Keep taking turns, and the grids will start to fill up with Os and Xs.

8 When a player has hit all the squares on an opponent’s boat, they’ve sunk it! The first to sink all their opponent’s boats is the winner.

Your four-square battleship is the pride of your fleet. If your opponent sinks it, you shout:
