PONG HAU K’I

This traditional game from China could be the simplest mathematical game of all.

This is a two-player game.

What do you need?

- Paper
- Pencil
- Ruler
- Four playing pieces, two of one shade and two of another

How to play

1 Draw a line about 12 cm (5 in) long on your paper. Add two more lines the same length to make three sides of a square.