
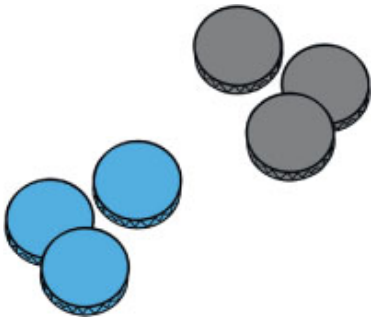
2 Use a ruler and pencil to copy the board onto paper, and shade in the lake. For counters, use buttons, counters from another game, or your own homemade counters made from cardboard or paper.



3 Set up the board with the counters opposite each other in rows of three.