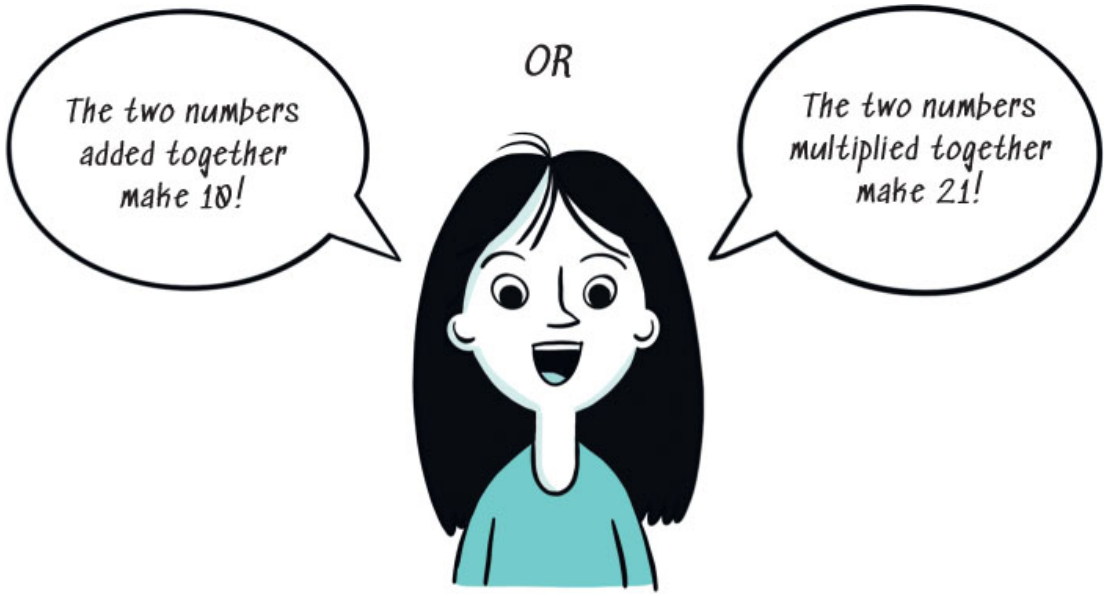
3 Now the two players have to figure out the other player's number as fast as they can!



4 Now the caller must add up the two numbers or multiply them together. (They can use the calculator if it's hard.) They tell the players the answer.

They know what their own number is, so they can figure it out.