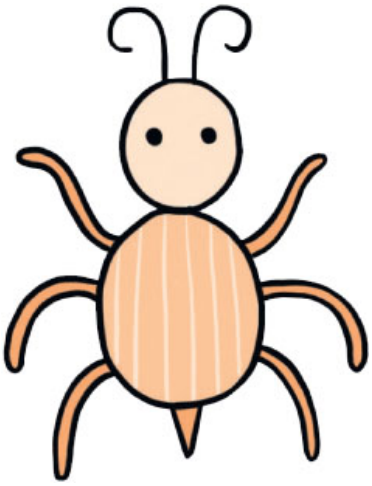
1 The players sit around a table or in a circle on the floor, and take turns playing.

2 When it’s your turn, you roll the dice. Depending on what number you roll, you may be able to start drawing your beetle or add body parts to it.

3 The different dice numbers stand for different parts of the beetle.



1 = Body
2 = Head
3 = A leg (6 in total)
4 = An eye (2 in total)
5 = An antenna (feeler) (2 in total)
6 = Tail

4 You have to roll a one to start drawing, since you need a body before you can attach other parts to it. When you get a
