

How to play

2 Give each team a set of cards, and send them to sit in two separate groups.

3 To play a round, the caller thinks of a number and shouts it out. The first team to show that number by holding up the cards wins a point. Simple! So, for example, the caller might choose the number 472.

