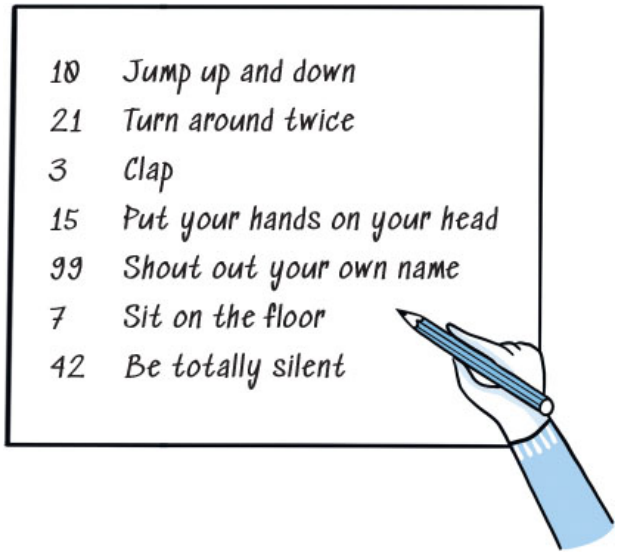
1 Before you start, write a list of about 8–10 numbers, and decide on an activity that each number will stand for. The group can work together to come up with ideas.



How to play

2 Write the list in large writing on the board or on paper stuck to the wall where everyone can see it.

3 Everyone stands in the space and waits for the caller to shout out a number from the list.