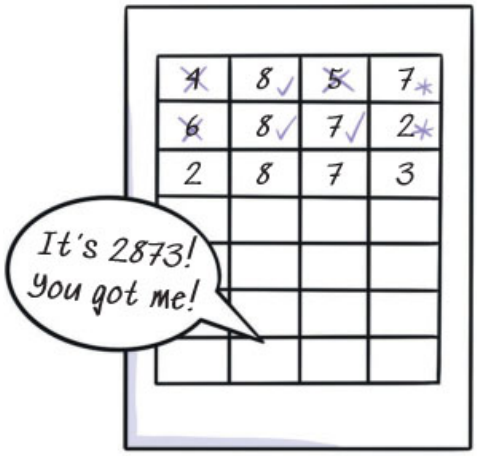
6 Player one marks up the new number with the special symbols, and player two tries again until they crack it!



Then swap places and play again. The winner is the one who cracks the code in the fewest guesses.