3 On the count of three, you both roll your dice into the tray. (This keeps the dice together and keeps them from rolling off somewhere.)

4 Quickly add up the numbers on the two dice to get the total. For example, if you've rolled a two and a five, the total is seven.

5 Try to be the first to grab the seven from your row of cards, and put it in the tray.