REBEL ARMY

This traditional two-player game comes from China. One person plays as the general, and the other is the rebel army.

What do you need?

- Paper or cardboard
- Marker or pencil
- 16 white counters and one black counter (or whichever two shades you prefer)

Set it up

1 Here’s the board for the game of Rebel Army. It’s a grid of 16 squares, with diagonal lines across them. You will need to make a copy of this board.
