1 Your aim is to throw the dice again and again, writing down each score and adding them up to try and get it as high as possible.

So, for example, you might throw this sequence:

BUT—there's a catch!

… and so on.

2 If you throw a one, you have to stop counting and start again from the beginning.

