It’s high up here!

6 The winner is the person or team with the highest score when the timer sounds!

Game science

This game is all about probability—how likely you are to roll a one. With every roll, there’s a one in six chance. This means it’s hard to build up a score higher than about 25, unless you’re very lucky. Try it and see!