3 If there’s more than one person, you can work together, or play against each other. To do this, each person decides if they will spot red, blue, or white vehicles.

4 Each person then looks out for only their own vehicles and adds the points to their own score.

The person with the highest score wins!

This game is easy, but great as a way to improve your mental arithmetic (in other words, your ability to do