inspect the props, state, context, and hooks associated with any selected component. Furthermore, it enables real-time editing of props and state, facilitating immediate testing of changes without requiring a page refresh.

Figure 4.10 User interface and Components tab view in React Developer Tools.

