	to interact with local files, allowing web applications to read and write files.	`FileReader`.
Geolocation API	Enable developers to access a user's location information, allowing for location-based services, mapping, and more.	Retrieving the user's latitude and longitude via `navigator.geolocation`.
Google Maps API	Allow developers to integrate Google Maps into their applications for mapping and navigation services.	Displaying a map with markers for points of interest through `google.maps`.
localStorage API	Provide persistent storage of key-value pairs in the browser with no expiration date.	Storing and retrieving user preferences or data using: `localStorage.setItem()` and `localStorage.getItem()`.
Messaging APIs	Facilitate sending and receiving	Sending push notifications about new updates or messages typically handled by `navigator.serviceWorker`.