Figure 11.1 explains the overall planning process that the agent/assistant will undertake. This figure was also presented in chapter 1, but let’s review it now in more detail. At the top of the figure, a user submits a goal. In an agentic system, the agent takes the goal, constructs the plan, executes it, and then returns the results.