

Figure A.5 Deploying a model through an Azure OpenAI Studio deployment

3. Click the Create New Deployment button to create a new deployment, and then select the model you want to deploy.
4. After the model is wrapped in a deployment, you must access the parent Azure OpenAI resource. From there, you can access the key, endpoint, or base URL needed to configure your connection, as shown in figure A.6.