Creating your first GPT Assistant is as simple as clicking the Create button and following along with the GPT Builder chat interface. Figure 3.2 shows using the Builder to create a GPT. Working through this exercise a couple of times can be a great way to start understanding an assistant's requirements.