- If you have an Akka server—HTTP or gRPC—you can forward its input to an actor using `ask` or `tell`. Conversely, you can send the actor's response to the output of the service. This way, you enable communication with an actor from outside the `ActorSystem`.