```
                        "Unknown confirmation method: " + method);    #C
            }    #C
            if (!"SUCCESS".equals(    #D originalRequest.headers("ssl-client-verify"))) {    #D
                return Optional.empty();    #D }    #D
            var expectedHash = Base64url.decode(    #E confirmationKey.getString(method));    #E var cert = UserController.decodeCert(    #F originalRequest.headers("ssl-client-cert"));    #F
            var certHash = thumbprint(cert);    #F
            if (!MessageDigest.isEqual(expectedHash, certHash)) {    #F
                return Optional.empty();    #F }    #F
        }
    }

    var token = new Token(expiry, subject);

    token.attributes.put("scope", response.getString("scope"));
    token.attributes.put("client_id", response.optString("client_id"));

    return Optional.of(token);
}
```

#A Check if a confirmation key is associated with the token.
#B Loop through the confirmation methods to ensure all are satisfied.
#C If there are any unrecognized confirmation methods then reject the request.