- The infrastructure required to run WordPress consists of several parts, such as virtual machines, load balancers, databases, and network filesystems.
- The whole infrastructure can be deleted with one click. The process is powered by automation.