- ASP.NET Core Identity is a framework for managing authentication and users. It uses EF Core to store user data in a database.
- You can customize the `IdentityUser` through migrations.
- Identity UI is a package that provides pages for many authentication scenarios.
- You can use scaffolding to generate your versions of Identity UI pages and customize them for your needs.