

Figure 10.9 The operation links differ, depending on who is logged in.

There is still one important thing to bear in mind. While you have removed the Delete links from the page, it is still possible for someone with knowledge of the URLs of the application to submit a request to the Delete endpoint. You need to apply an authorization check to only allow users in the `Admin` role to be able to do that. Whether you use an `Authorize`