- Razor Pages builds on the best parts of ASP.NET Core MVC.
- Razor Pages is an implementation of MVC that uses the page controller pattern.
- Razor Pages is primarily concerned with generating HTML on the web server.
- You use C# to program Razor Pages applications.
- HTML is generated dynamically from templates based on the Razor syntax—a mixture of HTML and C#.
- Razor Pages works with databases.