WebApplication1.csproj file 28 – 29
WebApplication1.sln file 28
wwwroot folder 30
website creation 18 – 27
adding new pages 23 – 25 adding pages to navigation 27
modifying to include dynamic content 25 – 26 running applications 21 – 22
using CLI 20 – 21
using Visual Studio 19 – 20
application logging 353 application publishing 412 – 418
self-contained and framework dependent 412 – 413
using CLI 413 – 414
using Visual Studio 414 – 418
enabling stdout logging 417 – 418 fixing SDK version used for publishing 418 locked assemblies and app_offline files 416 – 417 published output 415 – 416
suppressing language folders 417 application request pipeline 39 – 40 application security 390 broken access control 375 – 379
cross-site request forgery 376 – 379 incorrect security policies 375 – 376 cryptographic failures 379 – 384 plain-text passwords 379 – 381
using PasswordHasher without Identity UI 381 – 384 HTTPS 370 – 375
including HSTS header in production 374 – 375
SSL/TLS certificates 371 – 372
using in development 372 – 374 injection attacks 384 – 389
cross-site scripting 387 – 389 SQL injection 384 – 387
application troubleshooting 368 exception management 343 – 347 developer exception page 343 – 345 ExceptionHandler middleware 345 – 347
logging 353 – 367
applying log filter rules 358 – 359
custom email logger 360 – 363 EventIds 357 – 358
formatting log messages 358
introduction to 353 – 354
log categories 356 – 357
log levels 354 – 356
structured logging with Serilog 363 – 367
StatusCodePages middleware 347 – 353
WithRedirects method 348 – 350