- Override an authorization requirement on an endpoint by calling `AllowAnonymous()` or by adding the `[AllowAnonymous]` attribute to an endpoint handler. This removes any authentication requirements from the endpoint, so users can call the endpoint without a bearer token in the request.