order of filter execution 528 – 530
generating responses with page handlers 359 – 375 accepting parameters to page handlers 363 – 366 handler status codes 369 – 374
overview of 360 – 361
returning IActionResult responses 366 – 369 selecting page handlers to invoke 361 – 363 Model-View-Controller design pattern 330 – 337 building HTML using view model 334 – 335 complete Razor Page requests 335 directing request to Razor Page and building binding model 332 – 333 executing handler using application model 333 – 334
overview of 328 – 330
MVC controllers vs. 467 – 468, 480 – 484
benefits of Razor Pages 480 – 483 Razor Page PageModel 472 – 474
when to choose MVC controllers 483 – 484 routing 339 – 358
convention-based routing vs. explicit routing 342 – 343 customizing conventions 352 – 357
customizing route templates 346 – 348 generating URLs 348 – 352
in ASP.NET Core 340 – 342
routing requests 344 – 345
typical Razor Page 326 – 328
Razor Pages in Action (Brind) 412
Razor Tag Helpers 799 – 807
conditionally hiding elements 803 – 805 converting Markdown to HTML 805 – 807
printing environment information 800 – 803
Razor templates
adding loops and conditionals to 418 – 420
overview of 412 – 413
using C# in 417 – 418
Razor views 405 – 433
_VIewImports file 431
_ViewStart file 431 – 433
creating 410 – 416
code-behind 411 – 412
passing data to views 414 – 416
Razor templates 412 – 413
creating dynamic web pages 416 – 423 adding loops and conditionals to Razor templates 418 – 420 rendering HTML with Raw method 421 – 423 using C# in Razor templates 417 – 418 layouts
overriding parent layouts using sections 426 – 428 using for shared markup 424 – 426
overview of 406 – 410
partial views