18.2 Creating forms using Tag Helpers

The Form Tag Helper

The Label Tag Helper

The Input and Textarea Tag Helpers

The Select Tag Helper

The Validation Message and Validation Summary Tag Helpers

18.3 Generating links with the Anchor Tag Helper

18.4 Cache-busting with the Append Version Tag Helper

18.5 Using conditional markup with the Environment Tag Helper

19 Creating a website with MVC controllers

19.1 Razor Pages vs. MVC in ASP.NET Core

19.2 Your first MVC web application

19.3 Comparing an MVC controller with a Razor Page PageModel

19.4 Selecting a view from an MVC controller

19.5 Choosing between Razor Pages and MVC controllers

The benefits of Razor Pages

When to choose MVC controllers over Razor Pages

20 Creating an HTTP API using web API controllers

20.1 Creating your first web API project

20.2 Applying the MVC design pattern to a web API

20.3 Attribute routing: Linking action methods to URLs

Combining route attributes to keep your route templates DRY

Using token replacement to reduce duplication in attribute routing

Handling HTTP verbs with attribute routing

20.4 Using common conventions with [ApiController]

20.5 Generating a response from a model

Customizing the default formatters: Adding XML support

Choosing a response format with content negotiation