the list of to-do items for the Simple category. The traditional MVC pattern is still visible in Razor Pages, made up of the page handler (controller), the view, and the application model.

