

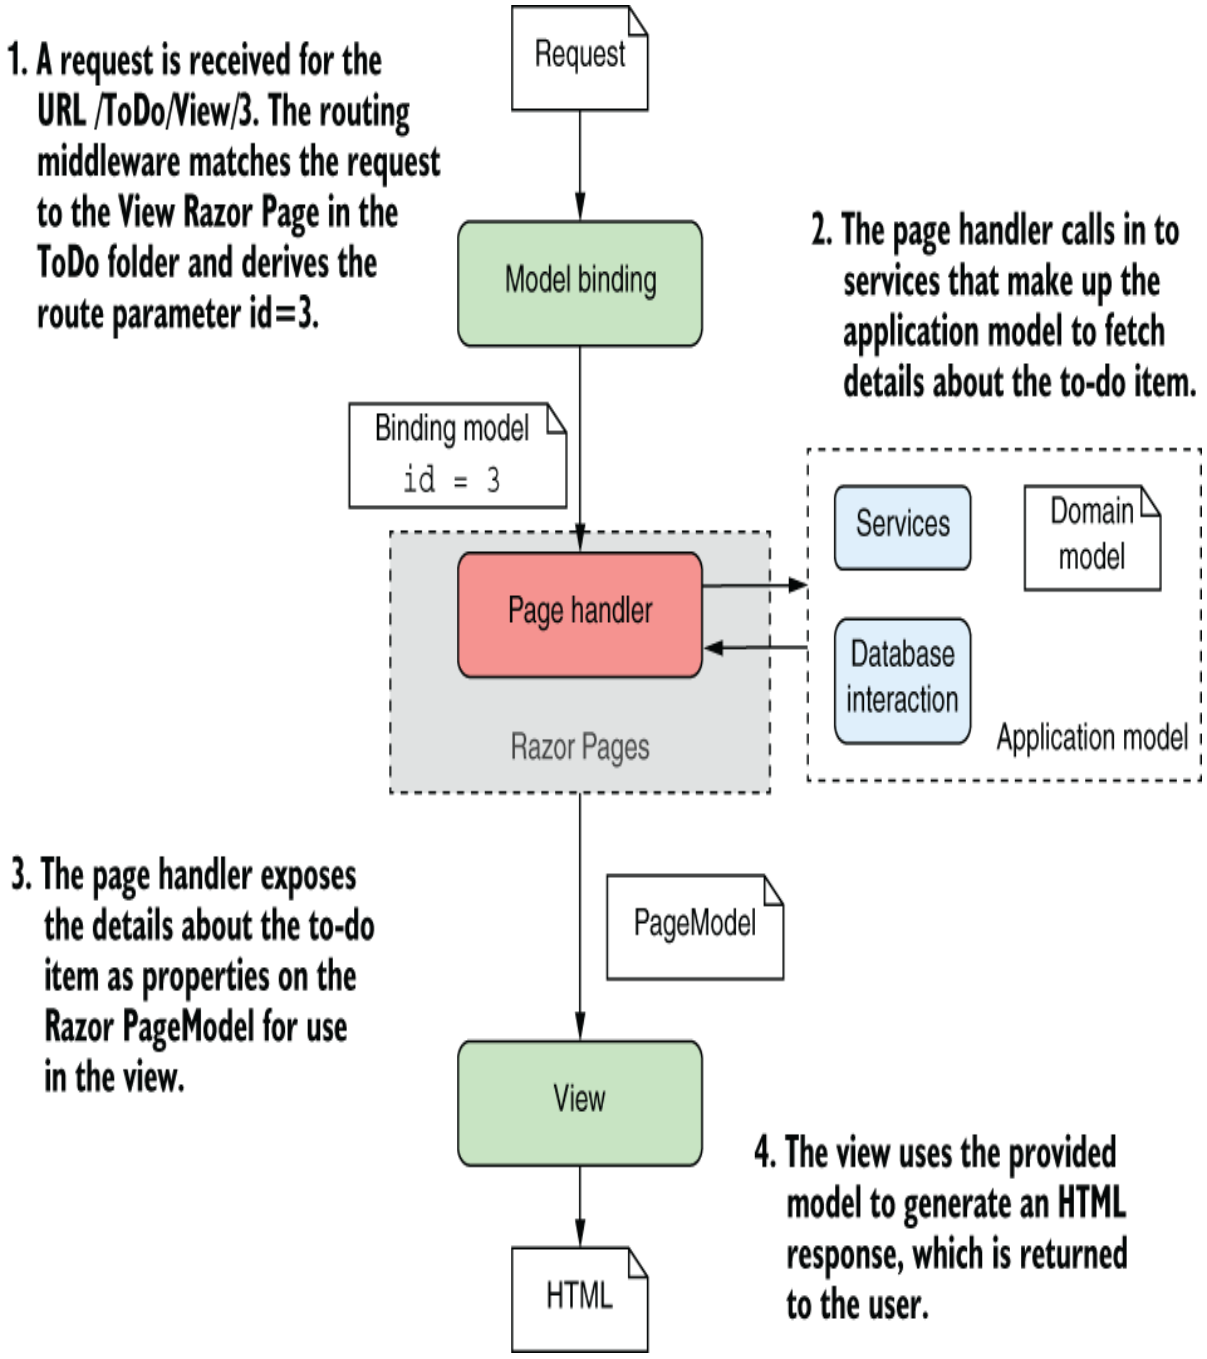

Figure 17.1 Handling a request for a to-do list item using ASP.NET Core Razor Pages. The page handler builds the data required by the view and exposes it as properties on the `PageModel`. The view generates HTML based only on the data provided; it doesn't need to know where that data comes from.