3. On the next screen, enter a project name, location, and solution name, and choose Create, as shown in figure 3.3. You might use WebApplication1 as both the project and solution name, for example.

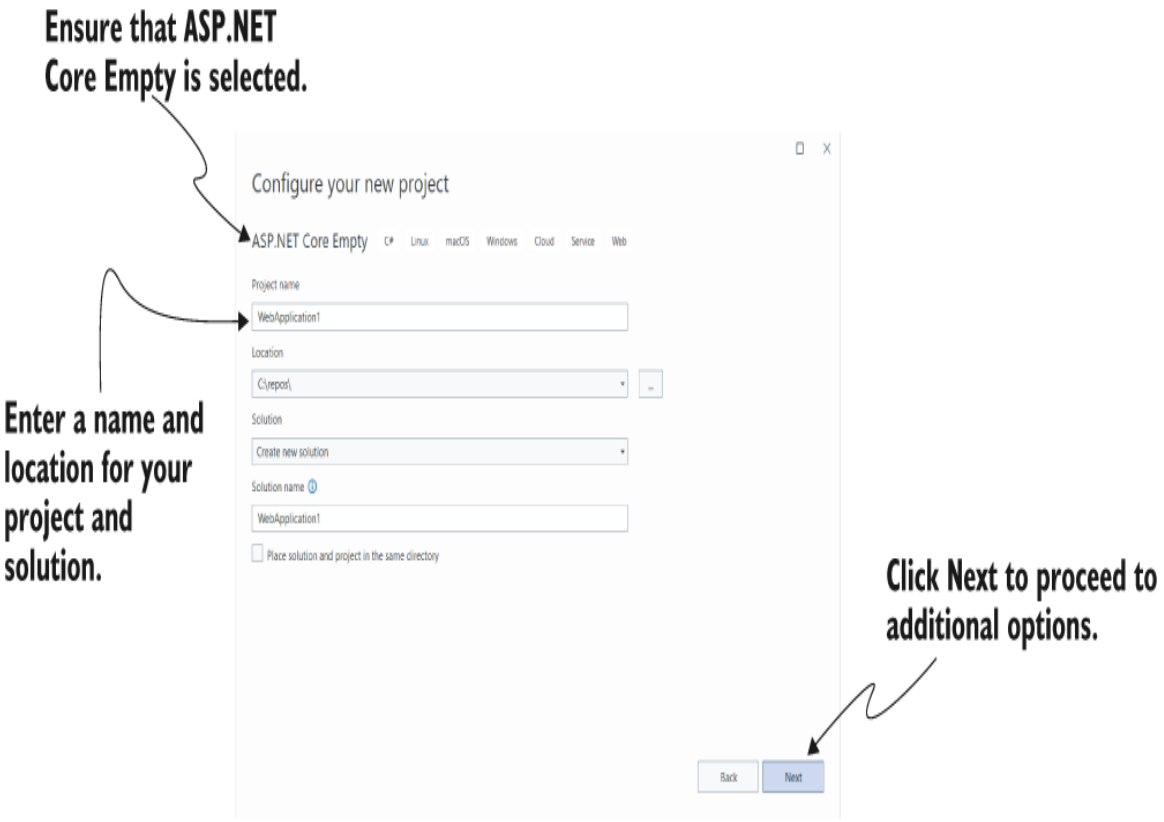

Figure 3.3 The Configure Your New Project dialog box. Enter a project name, location, and solution name, and choose Next.